

Gifts of Love: Creations made for children by their parents, caregivers, and teachers.

Exhibit: Will be held Nov. 2005, the opening will be on Nov. 6, 2005 at the Goodman 2 Building, An integral arts habitat on Potrero Hill. The address is 1695 18th Street #411 San Francisco, CA 94107. The gallery is a circular atrium space with plenty of natural light.

Contact: 415-642-7659 Rebecca Petigrow

Goals: To share ideas with other adults on how to create meaningful gifts for children, which counter the commercialization of childhood and most importantly enrich children's lives and spirit.

Submissions will be accepted up until October 15, 2005. Please submit mounted or ready for display. Add a note of inspiration and/or a photo of yourself with the child or children.

Lunchboxes/baskets and their contents:

1. Color Xerox a lunch box or basket you have painted for a child. Please submit mounted, with a note explaining what inspired you to create the painting. How you feel it enriches the child's day. Add a photo of the child with you or with the lunch box or basket.
2. Photograph an inspired lunch you have made for a child for school. Please submit mounted, with a note explaining your inspiration and the recipe.

Sleep:

1. Stories: Stories you've created to lull children to sleep or new ways of telling traditional stories.
2. Rituals: Rituals you've created to get your children ready for bed. (Document the sleep ritual through words or illustrations and a note explaining your inspiration).
3. Songs: Songs you've made up to lull children to sleep or new ways of singing traditional songs (submit a tape with you singing the song, with a note explaining your inspiration).

Discipline:

1. Stories: Stories you've made up to deal with a discipline problem and how it helped to solve the problem.

Rooms and other Spaces:

1. A space you've created for children. A child's room. A classroom. Please document with photos and ideas for an installation. Submit with a note explaining your inspiration and a photo of children in the space.

Birthdays:

1. Special cakes: photos and recipes
2. Birthday crowns: photos or the crown itself.

Toys: photos or the object itself.

Clothing: photos or the garment itself. Including Hats and Costumes.

deadline: oct. 15, 2005

phone: 415-642-7659

send submissions to:

G² art gallery: 1695 18th street
#411 sf ca 94017

contact: rebecca petigrow

Gifts of Love: Submissions

